FOREWORD

Because so few people, even among sincere Christians, really comprehend the nature of the United Nations and its goal in world politics, we have decided to share these articles regarding the end-time destiny of the organization we call the UNITED NATIONS.

"EXCEPT THE LORD BUILD THE HOUSE, THEY LABOR IN VAIN THAT BUILD IT: EXCEPT
THE LORD KEEP THE CITY, THE WATCHMAN
WAKETH BUT IN VAIN."

PSALM 127:1

PART 1

Once upon a time, there lived a great warrior king who was also "a man of God." But like many another, he had a weakness for women. Since his was an absolute monarchy, no one could check his pace. As we might expect, he married many women, some of whom were from foreign kingdoms. Concubines too were in supply. . . . One of the foreign princesses of an adjoining kingdom bore him a son who grew up to be a very handsome prince. In fact, his fine stature and attractive features endeared him to the people, and he became the talk of the nation. . . .

But let us look back to his childhood. Naturally, with so many wives and concubines, plus affairs of state, the king could not personally give much attention to the teaching and training of his many children. As a result, their upbringing devolved on their several mothers. . . . In the case of Prince Handsome, his mother had been brought up in the royal court of an adjoining kingdom. So it calls for no special insight to realize that she encouraged in her son ambitions for the throne of her husband's kingdom.

Some years later, we see him with much fanfare arriving early at the gates of his father's court to personally greet the many callers. Unto each he had a smooth word, lamenting the fact that he had not been vested with the required power to personally deal with their problems and griefs. For then, said he, they should have received speedy justice.

In course of time he had stolen the hearts of his father's subjects, being the secretly admired man-of-the-realm. When this became a patent fact to Prince Handsome, he left the capitol on a pretext, and traveled through the realm conspiring to dethrone his father. When the revolt was fully organized, he led his armed legions to march on the royal city. Not too many years before, he had murdered one of his half brothers for humiliating his sister, yet for this crime his father had forgiven him. Nevertheless, it was the prince's ambition to see his father's head hoisted – perhaps at the end of a spear. . . . WHAT THINK YOU OF PRINCE HANDSOME?

But his father served the Living God. In time he was advised of the plot and withdrew from the capitol to gain time and to get his forces organized. . . . Shortly, a battle ensued – but in a wooded area. The prince, personally leading his forces, got his head caught and "hung up" between two branches of a tree. THUS ended the life of the traitorous prince who callously planned the death of his father....

The true-to-life story you have just viewed is a page from ancient history: a drama Almighty God caused to be enacted by His chosen people TO DEPICT THE "UNITED NATIONS," and to accurately foreshadow the part they are to play in this crucial age. And the drama's other details you may read in II Samuel 13:32 through 18:33, being the none too inspiring account of Absalom, king David's son by Maacah (3:3).

Time and time again must the reader be reminded that the pathway of sin trodden by His ancient people SYMBOLIZED DRAMAS PLANNED BY GOD TO PROPHETICALLY PORTRAY THE ERAS THEN IMPENDING! THAT fact is a Truth of the utmost importance and transcendent in power; A GLORY-FACT which should be constantly stressed and carefully taught by every minister of God. But alas! They teach but particle-truths, for, their own understanding is so fragmentary, having been schooled in the precepts of men – NEVER communing with the True and only TEACHER appointed for this age! And such ministers as have momentarily been under His Fire, have banged the door in His face, cheerfully teaching for doctrine the conclusions of men!

COME, THEN, that we may stand in awesome rapture as we gaze with close attention through the shrouding veil – now rifted by His Spirit. First let a startling highlight be set before you in its age-spanning, 3-fold phase: (1) The KINGDOM of Saul was a prophetic preview of Israel's destiny UNDER THE LAW; (2) The REIGN of David was a preview of Christendom; while (3) the REIGN of Solomon portrayed the approaching era commonly termed "the millennium." (In this brief study the details of the 3-fold graph cannot be unveiled, but it is hoped that in a future article it may be considered.) As will be seen under "(2)" above, the treasonable life of Absalom applies to the end-time of our Christian dispensation.

Now for some pinpointing details: Absalom means 'father is PEACE', or 'father OF peace'. And THAT – as you know – is the very bedrock of the U.N. His mother was Maacah, "the daughter of Talmai king of Geshur" The meaning of her given name is 'OPPRESSED', while Talmai is 'FURROWED' and Geshur is 'to JOIN' or 'BRIDGE'. Aside from that, Absalom was the THIRD son unto David, born while he reigned in Hebron (which means 'association').

Wherefore, if the above is true, then the U.N. had to be "conceived" and brought forth at a time when the nations of Christendom were in a state of particular ASSOCIATION. And indeed it was. For, at the close of World War I, the ALLIED or 'associated' nations of Christendom conceived and gave birth to the "League of Nations" – housed in Switzerland, a small land aloof and not embroiled in the war. The League of Nations was the forerunner to the U.N., and typified by Absalom's 3-year stay at his grandfather's court.

Next we find his mother Maacah, WIFE of the king, means 'OPPRESSION'. Was it not a fact that the SOUL (wife) of Christendom, felt itself direly oppressed at the close of the first great war, and even more so by the close of the second holocaust when the U.N. came into being? (Observe: although the name was juggled, the U.N. is precisely the same "PEACE"-begetter as was the abortive League of Nations!) So we behold "Absalom," fathered by the "beloved" (David) spirit of Christendom, while mothered by OUR SOUL IN OPPRESSION.

As we look further back upon his ancestry, we find the 'furrows and ridges' of "Talmi" – accurately picturing the SPLITS and the BARRIERS between the 3 nations of Christendom at the time. And the land over which he reigned was to be 'bridged or JOINED' (Geshur). THAT was precisely the spirit-drive behind the two wars – to bridge the gaps and join the ridges of the nations, that the rugged realm might be converted into a smooth terrain.

Momentarily we take a glance at numbers. Absalom was the THIRD son of David; so was Levi, the father of the priesthood, the third son of Jacob. "3" is the number of the priesthood and the learned, who SUPPOSEDLY serve the Living God. At any rate, THAT is the avowed mission of the priesthood, although history seems to indicate that their service unto God has often fallen far short. And is it not THUS with the U.N., that they are a body of the nations' "learned" and associated to bring God's blessings to man – NOT BY THE SWORD – but by the WORD AND PEN?

Absalom was of splendid stature and comely features – with not a blemish from head to foot (14:25). Tell me: is not the U.N., in philosophic concept, the BEST PERFECTION OF BEAUTY ever brought forth by Christendom?

While the magnificent U.N. structure in New York, as well as its standing with the nations, is certainly of outstanding stature. Even the hair of Absalom's head, we might suppose, was almost one of the wonders of the world (II Sam. 14:26)! This unusual and massive growth of hair, bespeaks the numerous NATIONS and the MULTITUDES OF PEOPLE which the U.N. represents.

Once more we look to his mother: she was of FOREIGN birth; that is, of non-Israel stock. Which startling fact tells us that the SOUL of Christendom which brought forth this traitor, IS FOREIGN TO THE SPIRIT OF CHRIST!! The "peace" and the "prosperity" planned by the U.N., and the means of its realization, HAVE NOTHING IN JESUS CHRIST! (Ah, beloved, ponder that deep and long!) And because it has nothing in Jesus our Lord, it will prove as traitorous as did Judas!

In 14:27 we are told that he had 3 sons and 1 daughter. His very fair daughter is the U.N. Charter, or soul-CONCEPT, which remains in the realm of IDEALISM, and never implemented! His 3 sons will prove to be 3 POSITIVE AND ACTIVE BODIES, begotten by the U.N. Which ones they will prove to be I do not know, and care less (for, as the account does not name his sons, so similarly will the 3 U.N. bodies EVENTUATE IN WORTHLESSNESS! According to 18:18 he built a pillar, for, he had "no son to keep my name in remembrance." It could be that his sons died in their early years).

For years now we have seen "Absalom" coming with fanfare to the gates of the court of Christendom, to WOO the plaintiffs. "IF only we had been invested with the power to settle your case!" And so they pass some more "resolutions," to which no one pays any attention. So, Prince Handsome continues to steal the heart of simple Christendom. At the time that he commenced, he arranged for chariots, regalia, and horses; with "50 MEN TO RUN BEFORE HIM" (see 15:1). Similarly did the U.N. secure motorcars and put on a show – with 50 YEARS AHEAD OF IT ("run

BEFORE") to the end of our Christian dispensation.

"...After 40 years..." (15:7) says the A.V., which also seems to be the reading of the old Hebrew. However, that is not in keeping with the facts, unless some portion has been left out, such as, perhaps, David's first going to Hebron. As is, it can only be understood in terms of TESTING TIME. Were we to consider it a factual time FOR OUR DAYS, then that will soon be so (from the commencement of the original League of Nations). At THAT time Absalom set his mind to take over the reigns of Power. And for a brief moment the plot worked well. Apparently, the people were behind him. Had it not been for God being behind David with his few "valiant men," the 'peace begetter' would have murdered his father (the anointed one) and reigned over "Israel."

WE LIVE IN MOMENTOUS TIMES! Had Absalom been mothered by an Israelitish woman, it would have been different. Even similarly we see the strength of the NON-Christian elements within the U.N. And according to the pattern set before us, the time is now rapidly approaching that the U.N. will endeavor to abrogate the free will of independent Christian nations – ASSUMING HEADSHIP THROUGH THE POWER LENT BY MANY SIMPLE NATIONS WILLING TO FOLLOW THE NEW LEADER – TRAITOROUS TO ALL OF CHRISTENDOM (that is, to the SPIRIT of Christendom).

By 15:24-25 we see how David took along the ARK of God, but after that "the people had done passing out of the city," and David had crossed the brook, he sent the Ark back to the city with Zadok at its head. This KEYS the time for the great conspiracy. Observe: here the ARK of God, in this application, TYPIFIES HIS CHURCH. David's taking it out of Jerusalem and crossing the brook speaks of the time of the translation of His church. And as the careful student will observe, DAVID SENT IT BACK, which fact is in astonishing agreement with the details of

His end-time strategy (as elsewhere outlined in my teachings). Here, I cannot go into those details, except to say that the ones "sent back" (to call and prepare the balance) will be instrumental in confounding the "counsel of Ahithophel" (15:31), and wreck the U.N.

In the closing scene we see Absalom hung by his head in the clefted bough of a great oak. The "oak" is a mighty nation of Christendom (which I surmise to be the British, but in this I could be mistaken). Its clefted branch could be England and the U.S.A. – but time will tell.

Here may a word be said about the "one worlders" and the Jews. Certain sections and cults, with a Hitler type of mind, seek to poison the mass-mind against the Jews. (God foretold that.) And no doubt about it, all Jews are not angels. Surely, many of them would like to see Christendom overcome, and themselves in a One World saddle. But tell me: what nation on the face of the earth today, would not themselves do that very thing – were it in their power? MANY nations have already tried it! So let us be realists, and permit not ourselves to become poisoned by cultists with an ax to grind. A man does not have to stand atop the U.N. building screaming "ONE WORLD," in order to be working hand-in-glove with the emanations from the pit (be that knowingly or unwittingly).

In his lifetime, Absalom built himself a great pillar to perpetuate his name. Similarly has the U.N. its magnificent housing-edifice in New York. And at the time of his death, he was cast into a pit with a great mound of stones heaped upon him (18:17). SIMILARLY will it be with the U.N. when God gets through with it. For, HE shall SHAKE THE EARTH – and the U.N. structure shall become but a heap of rubble. . . .

GOD HASTEN THE DAY!

PART 2

bsalom was David's offspring CONTRARY TO THE WORD OF GOD (God had strictly forbidden His people Israel to marry foreign and devil-worshipping women). In prophetic drama, David portrays Christendom, while Maacah, Absalom's mother, typifies the Godless, Christ-rejecting communist nations taken into the U.N.; and, through this unlawful union was brought forth the United Nations' CHARTER: a 'Prince Handsome' to look upon, with both his idle chatter as well as traitorous connivings in the days of his maturity. But stupid Christendom, even as blinded David, views this sinful offspring with great favor! How great and tragic the price we shall eventually pay for this, our willful sin!

"And his breath, as an overflowing stream, shall reach to the midst of the neck, to sift the nations with the sieve of vanity: and there shall be a bridle in the jaws of the people, causing them to err."

Isaiah 30:28

Ordinarily, a bridle is used for guiding a horse. The horse is, in Scripture, the symbol of the POWER in or unto war. Here, God says through His prophet that in the latter days, when AGAIN He binds up the breach of His people, He shall be very angry and His lips filled with indignation WHEN THE NATIONS SHALL BE SIFTED WITH

THE SIEVE OF VANITY. Observe, this "sieve of vanity" is the straining in the U.N. sessions!

Then, fail not to observe His ominous Word: ". . . a bridle in the jaws of the people, causing them to err." Today the U.N. is that 'bridle' which guides or steers the nations of the world. And this selfsame 'bridle' (the U.N.) "causes the people to ERR."

THESE are the days when the "breach of His people" has/is being "bound up" (the restoration of Israel to Palestine!). And the United Nations Organization is the ONLY international body which can be termed "a bridle" in the mouth of the peoples. THIS, says He, shall lead the people into trouble (because of this "vanity" which the U.N. is)! Yet it is to that end when God shall assemble the nations in conflict one against the other, that He may "devour them with the fire of His tongue" (Isa. 30:27)!

God has left no stone unturned to warn, counsel and guide Christendom. But in our self conceit we have set up a magnificent monument of 'VANITY' to speed us into the cauldron of Armageddon. THEN and THERE shall Christendom know that its sinful union with Godless Communism (the devil-worshipping Maacah), has been cursed by God Almighty – that its fruit might open wide the mouth of Hell!

Some have asked: "Do the ten widows that David shut up, reflect anything for the ten tribe Israel people of our day?" (II Sam. 20:3) The answer is, Yes! Absalom had gone in unto them: they were 'unclean'. Absalom was a type of the United Nations of today; through which Christendom of today has also become unclean. I have had no revelation of the matter, but I assume that those ten Christian nations who have defiled themselves through the U.N. will be denied association with the Jerusalem government until their leaders are no more.

Others have asked: "As David's reign points to the

Church age, are not his last days, as in I Kings 1:1, a parallel to the Laodicean church of Revelation 3:14? He must have been miserable, also wretched, and blind not to be aware that Adonijah set himself up as king. What is implied by David's servants (1 Ki. 1:2) seeking Abishag, a virgin of rare beauty, to lie in his bosom? Apparently she only cherished and ministered to him as per verse 4, "but the king knew her not."

Also, others have asked, "What is the significance of the dual anointing of Solomon? In verse 34 David sent Zadok the priest, and Nathan the Prophet to anoint him. Then in verse 39, Zadok the priest took the horn of oil, but in verse 45 both are said to have anointed him."

It is good to have those who observe the little items to bring them to our attention by pointed questions. This opens the way for the inflooding Light, which otherwise might never be seen, or perhaps but in part.

Such questioning calls for much discernment, which is further indicated by the perceiving of correct associations (such as between David's last days and that of the Laodicean church age).

Before we take a careful look at this, I should like to point out that by verse 45 we should not necessarily draw the conclusion that they both anointed him separately. For, by verse 38 we see where several persons caused Solomon to ride on king David's mule. Yet that does not justify us to conclude that he was caused to ride on the mule several times (by each one of the persons named). Nevertheless, in this particular instance it does appear very probable that Solomon was anointed twice, but at two distinctly different times. For, by I Chronicles 29:22, we read: ". . . And they made Solomon the son of David king the second time, and anointed him unto the Lord to be the chief governor; and Zadok to be priest."

The only plausible conclusion to draw is, that when

David received the news of Adonijah's self-acclaimed rulership, he put through a rush order for the anointing and proclamation to psychologically counter Adonijah's conspiracy. But thereafter, and in due course of time when all of Israel had received the announcement, and had had time to prepare for the great occasion, then Solomon was officially crowned and anointed the second time in pomp and with ceremonial rites. That all readers may better understand this, I believe it well to briefly survey the situation together with the portents thereof.

My students are aware how the reign of Saul portrayed the era of LAW, while that of David portrayed our era of Christianity, followed by Solomon's reign as prophetic of the coming Millennial reign under the direction of Christ our King.

Sometime previous to Adonijah's attempt at the kingdom-throne, Absalom had conspired against his father – and almost succeeded in getting the crown. THIS was a prophetic drama to portray how the traitorous organization known as the United Nations will, in these last days, attempt to take over the absolute rulership of Christendom – but is doomed to fail (thank our Lord for that)!

Absalom's failure and consequent death placed Adonijah next in line for the throne – by virtue of age. He was David's 4th son, and of Haggith, which means 'festive', or 'festal'; while Adonijah means 'my Lord is Yahweh'. Absalom, you will recall, is 'father of peace'. The reason for the 'father of peace' failing to reign was that of his conspiracy against his father. The 'father of peace' fails to bring on PEACE because he seeks it through his own shrewdness, and without the blessing of Almighty God, through Whom alone PEACE can be realized by a war torn world. The U.N.'s abortive attempt shall fail!

Adonijah was a half brother to Absalom. Wherefore, this second attempt to seize control over Christian nations shall come through an organization, or group akin to the U.N., and of later formation. My calculated guess is that it will be NATO, or, conceivably, an organization as yet not set up.

For many years now I have been saying that the U.N. is doomed to failure. Several eminent persons have voiced their conviction of the U.N.'s failure. Among them was Herbert Hoover, who also suggested that our leading Christian nations should prepare an organization to be in readiness to take over when we no longer can function effectively through the U.N.

By these various factors we can readily see how and whereby "Adonijah" can make his bid for the 'throne' over Christendom. Now to look more carefully at our questions.

David must have been blind and wretched to not have perceived the conspiracy afoot. And THAT is precisely the situation with Christendom of today! Not only is it blind and miserable, but it is corrupt! It is no longer a question of Christendom's "morals," but rather the degree of its utter degeneracy!

It would be great error to say that David was degenerate, but through his advanced age and weakened condition, he lacked the power to resist the scandalous conduct of his "servants" to seek out the greatest beauty of the realm to "lie in his bosom." Howbeit, there was 'psychology' to this. But as I cease not to tell you, 'psychology' is an emanation from the Pit!

The Serpent's "wisdom" behind this strategy was to REVIVE David's interest in kingdom matters. For, if a beautiful, young maiden could succeed in quickening his pulse, he would – for a while – again be a driving force in kingdom matters.

WHO is this rare beauty of the realm? "Abishag the Shunammite." Who is this enchanting virgin that bids fair to quicken the pulse of a dying Christendom? WHAT is this 'pot of gold' at the rainbow's end? What is the etymol-ogy of the name?

Abishag means 'father of error and/or wanderings'. While Shunem, from where she came; means 'quietness', or a 'resting place'.

Did you 'get it'? The beautiful Shunammite is the self-same elusive quest of Christendom, for which it has become too old, decrepit and indolent to court or capture through its own prowess and virility. It is the selfsame PEACE ('quietness at a resting place') which we idealize and have idolized – but too plain 'yellow' to fight for! And in our state of advanced decrepitude, we are too blind to perceive the cunning, the scheming, and the outright treachery afoot to put Christendom off the 'throne'! We have sought it through the League of Nations and the U.N.; while a scheming clique through the U.N. will soon attempt to usurp absolute power (over Christendom). After that attempt fails, old and debilitated Christendom will again seek to rally to world leadership through its "servants" (politicians) who will seek out "Abishag" in hopes of rallying 'the old man' by the adorable Shunammite nestled in his bosom!

But David "knew her not." So the painted picture of world PEACE shall utterly fail to revitalize Christendom. Why? Because completely have we rejected the PRINCE of PEACE! Our lip service to Christ with spinelessness for Truth and Right shall avail us nothing! Our pantless leadership can attain to no communion with the beautiful Shunammite!

Yet once more we see her as Adonijah pleads that she become his wife. Yet this very plea becomes "Adonijah's" death-knell!

Christendom is near the end of its road! "Solomon" is to take over this "pot of gold at the rainbow's end" which we have sought in error too long! Our very desire for peace has fostered error (in conduct) – luring us from pillar to post, trying out this and that (monarchies, dictatorships, democracy so-called) and what-have-we (these have been the "wanderings" of the Shunammite), yet all in vain – because we have flat-footedly rejected the very foundation for PEACE, namely CHRIST our Lord.

WHY was Solomon TWICE anointed? To be prophet, priest and King! The Prophet anointed him to be KING, and also to receive a prophet's mantle; while the Priest anointed him for induction into the priesthood. That is, the king received power to banish, or to appoint for the priesthood.

Wherefore, when "Solomon" becomes crowned, "PEACE" shall reign upon the throne of David over the lands of Christendom and the entire world. When a true PEACE reigns supreme from the throne of the Prince of Peace, it shall also function as "prophet" to declare to us the way and will of God, as well as things to come. Beyond that, it is also to function in the high priestly office by setting forth the rites, means, and observances whereby to fully reenter the 'lost Paradise'!
